NOTIFICATION

N L 9907—C M 30 50 29 d t d B g l th 27th D mb 1950

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 68 of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation Act 1949 (Mysore Act LXIX of 1949) His Highness the Maharaja of My ore is pleased to make the following rules relating to the election of aldermen namely —

1 These rules may be called the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation (Election of Aldermen) Rules 1950

2 A meeting convened for the purpose of election of aldermen under Sub Section (1) of Section 65 of the Act shall be presided over by the Mayor in his absence by the Deputy Mayor and in the ab ence of both the Mayor and the Deputy Mayor by a Councillor cho en by the meeting to preside for the occasion

Provided that the Mayor or the Deputy Mayor shall not preside over a meeting at which the name of the Mayor or the Deputy Mayor as the case may be is pro posed for election as an alderman

3 Every candidate for election as an alderman shall be proposed by a Councillor and seconded by another at the meeting held for the purpose The proposer shall when proposing the name of any candidate deliver to the Chairman a declaration in writing expressing the candi date willingness to stand for election as an alderman to th general or reserved vacancy as the case may be signed by the candidate and by the proposer The names of all candidates who have been proposed and seconded shall be read out by the Chairman

4 (1) In the case of election to the general vacan cies if the number of candidates whose names are so read out is equal to the number of vacancies the Chairman shall declare all such candidates duly elected

(2) If the number of such candidates is less than the number of vacancies the Chairman shall declare all such candidates duly elected and shall either call for fresh nominations or adjourn the election to fill up the remaining vacancy or vacancies to the next meeting of the Corporation

5 (1) In the case of election to the reserved vacancy if only one candidate is proposed for election the Chairman shall declare such candidate as duly elected to the vacancy

(2) If no candidate is duly proposed for election to the reserved vacancy the Chairman shall either call for fresh nominations or adjourn the election to fill up the vacancy to the next meeting of the Corporation

6 If the number of candidates proposed exceeds the number of vacancies the votes of the councillors present at the meeting shall be taken by ballot The Commissioner shall make adequate arrangements to secure the secrecy of the ballot

7 Every councillor wishing to vote shall be supplied with a voting paper on which the names of all such candidates shall be typed or legibly written in the following form indicating therein the names of candidates standing for election to the general vacancies or the reserved vacancy as the case may be

RESERVED VACANCY

Each councillor shall then proceed to the place set apart for the purpose and exercise his vote by placing a cross mark (X) in the voting paper against the name or names of the candidate or candidates for whom he wishes to vote He shall then hold up the voting paper so as to conceal his vote and deposit the same in a ballot box placed in the view of the Chairman The ballot box shall be so constructed that the voting paper may be placed therein but not extracted therefrom without the box being opened After the voting is over the Chairman shall then open the box and count the votes in the presence of two councillors who shall be nominated tellers by the Chairman

8 The candidate who obtains the largest number of votes or if there is more than one vacancy as many of the candidates at the top of the poll as there are vacancies to be filled shall be declared to have been duly elected If there be an equality of votes between any two or more candidates and the addition of one vote to any one or more of such candidates will entitle him or them to be declared duly elected the Chairman shall decide by drawing lots in the presence of councillors to which one or more of such candidates uch additional vote shall be deemed to have been given

9 Any voting paper which contains the signature or writing of any of the voting councillors or on which marks are placed against more candidates than there are vacancies to be filled shall be invalid

10 The names of candidates declared duly elected as aldermen to the general or reserved vacancies or vacancy as the case may be shall be forthwith reported by the Chairman to the State Government

11 In the above rules the word Councillor shall mean a person who on the 1st day of January 1951 will enter upon office as Councillor
